

The right to peace: future opportunities in the field of education

Date and Venue

13th March 2024
55th regular session, Human Rights Council
Salle XXVII
12:00-13:00
Palais des Nations, Geneva

Objectives of the side event

The University for Peace, in cooperation with Associazione Comunita Papa Giovanni XXIII (Pope John XXIII Community Association) and the International Alâwiyya Sufi Association (AISA International NGO) will organize a parallel event on “The right to peace: future opportunities in the field of education” on 13th March 2024 at the Palais des Nations.

Different UN agencies and entities, think tanks and NGOs based in Geneva will be invited for this one-hour meeting. The objectives of the meeting are the following:

- To reflect about the role played by the education on peace in the promotion of the right to peace
- To discuss about how to implement programs on peacebuilding through education
- To analyze the creation of an environment conducive for solutions and how

UN political and peace actors could be engaged more proactively, particularly in the field of education.

Draft Program

Moderation

Ambassador David Fernandez Puyana, Permanent Observer of the University for Peace to the United Nations in Geneva

Speakers

- Ambassador Juan Antonio Quintanilla, Permanent Representative of Cuba to the United Nations in Geneva
- Ambassador Christian Guillermet, Permanent Representative of Costa Rica to the United Nations in Geneva
- Dr. Maria Mercedes Rossi, Representative of the Pope John XXIII Community Association to the United Nations in Geneva -UN Declaration on the Right to Peace-
- Naser Yassine, Main representative of the International Alâwiyya Sufi Association to the United Nations in Geneva -UN Day of Living Together in Peace-

Live stream link

Spanish-English simultaneous interpretation